A Nomination Declined.

MR. EDGEMORE.
I respectfully beg to decline the nomination for warden, my business being out of town and my time being wholly occupied there; I have no opportunity of knowing the condition of the town and attending to the duties required. I have found this to be the case during the past year, and as the town now requires an active, energetic and practical council member I feel compelled to decline, so that one who has better opportunities and more time may be nominated in my stead. Appreciating fully the honor conferred upon me by such a unanimous nomination.

I am yours truly
D. C. WILSON.

A United States Nuisance.

A petition was presented to Mr. Cloutman last week for leave to pull down the old rookery opposite Burkhardt's mill. It is a dilapidated house in which bad characters frequently congregate, and some night, it is feared, a fire will start there which may burn the best part of the town. It is one of the properties held by the U. S. Government. Of course no repairs can be made in such cases and the town contains twenty such places which are perfect eyecores and nuisances. The United States will not pay taxes, will not repair, will not do anything, but persistently hold on to the property.

A Big Tooth.

The biggest tooth on record was drawn from the bed of the river by the dredge, on Friday last. It was almost perfect when taken out, but received a blow from the hammer of one of the washmen, which cracked a large piece off. Its greatest length on the surface is 7 1/2 inches; width, 3 1/4; from surface to root, 12 inches; circumference, 10 inches; weight, 144 pounds. The cabinet of specimens now in Mr. Wells' office contains some very large bones among them are other remains of the mammoth consisting of parts of ribs, tusks, leg and feet bones, vertebrae, etc. Some of the vertebrae are eight inches in length. Sharks teeth of all sizes are numerous, some measuring 12 1/2 inches across.

Jumped the Track.

On Sunday last, the engine of the night train on the Savannah & Charleston road ran into some cars loaded with iron which had been left on the side track, but which had run down on the main track without it being discovered. The engine was thrown completely from the track, and a good deal injured. No one was injured, the engineer clinging firmly to his engine. No other cars left the track. After six hours hard work the track was cleared and the passengers due in Charleston at 5 a. m., reached there at 1 p. m.

Collector C. H. Wright has seized a number of palmetto logs, which were cut on Hunting Island, and offered for sale here. The land from which they were taken is in the possession of the government and is open to redemption by the ante-bellum owners. Mr. Wright, very properly, holds it to be his duty to preserve such lands from the depredations of timber cutters or other irresponsible parties.

On Monday last the up passenger train collided with a colored girl named Lucy Hoxey, near Ellenton. She was crossing the track at the time and was thrown some distance by the cow-catcher, breaking her leg above the ankle. She was taken to Ellenton for surgical attention.

The fact is no longer to be disguised that the caterpillar is upon us. Already we hear of their being on Johns, Wadmalaw, St. Helena and Paris islands, and we have no doubt that they are to be found on all the islands and in every cotton field on the coast. Coming thus early, with the crop backward, they will be likely to destroy the whole of the cotton crop on the sea islands if the weather should be wet and cool.

A party of gentlemen have been trying for a week to catch a devil fish in the harbor. So far they have not even seen one. Off Bay Point was a favorite spot for devil fish before the war, but none have been seen since. It is thought by some that Yankees disagree with devil fish.

An old negro named John, long an inmate of the poorhouse sent in a request to the county commissioners for permission to marry another pauper in house. John has reached the mature age of seventy-five. Commissioner Waterhouse forbade the bans.

Killed on the Railroad.

We learn that Friday morning's train from Savannah, on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, ran over and instantly killed a colored woman opposite the Fair Grounds near Savannah.

A band of gypsies have been camping on the vacant lots back of the court house for some weeks. They were rather astonished some days ago to get a notice from the United States Collector that they must pay a rent of five dollars, for using the lots belonging to the General Government.

The Savannah military organization celebrated Monday, July 21st, as the anniversary of the first battle of Manassas, by a parade and picnic at the fair grounds. We have reason to remember the twenty-first of July. We called it Bull Run, and have never felt like celebrating it much.

Mr. A. C. Schaffer is to publish a new paper in Colleton County, to be called the "Waterboro News." It will be Republican in politics.

Wm. Elliott, Esq., and his family, are sojourning for the summer at Flat Rock.

Pilot Dupong has been suspended for six months for negligence, in leaving the Williamette.

Another of these delightful moonlight excursions is contemplated. We are all agreed.

DIED.

The infant son of John Cooper died on Wednesday morning after a very brief illness.

Dogs will take notice that the badges have arrived, and that the penalties are severe on those found running at large without them after August first.

A little boy wants to know if the "Hon." prefixed to the names of members of the legislature, means "honest." To be certainly.

Col. G. F. McIntyre, proprietor of The Colleton Gazette has determined to set up a press in Waterboro and do his own printing. His removal from the position of Colonel of the "mefish" has not depressed him much.

Sudden Death.

A colored train hand, named Janius Reese, suddenly fell dead on the down train on the Port Royal Railroad, near Allendale, on Friday last morning. The body was taken to Augusta.

Rumor states that Mr. Whipper, who, has recently been appointed Treasurer for Barnwell county, is about to remove that office from Barnwell to Blackville. As a matter of course the auditor's office will follow.—Barnwell Sentinel.

The probability is that no term of court will be held in Barnwell county this fall, on account of the undecided question as to where the county seat is, Barnwell or Blackville.

A Party at Beaver Dam.

On the fourth of July a large party visited Beaver Dam mills. A part of the day was spent in fishing after which dancing commenced. Ample accommodations were furnished by Mr. Fyphberg, for the dancers. Everything passed off very pleasantly, the party not separating until a late hour.

Personal.

D. C. Wilson's mill shut down on Monday for a short time. Mr. Wilson goes north this week on business.

George Bennett started north on Tuesday for a short visit.

M. M. Kingman and wife are on a visit to the north.

Mr. Northrop, editor of the Columbia Union Herald, was in town on Tuesday.

Maj. Willis and Mr. Klatte of Charleston, have been in Beaufort this week.

Bull River News.

Sailed on Saturday last, Bark Rutines Capt. Sundstrom, 967 tons of phosphate rock for Copenhagen; loaded by Coosaw Mining Company.

Sailed Sunday morning, brig Ino, 540 tons of phosphate rock, for Plymouth, England. Loaded by Coosaw Mining Company.

Two other vessels will be loaded by the same Company during the current week. Schr. Eva May, for Woods Hole, Mass.

News Items.

Caterpillar have appeared on Wadmalaw and John's island.

South Carolina bonds have fallen to 15 and 15 1/2 in the New York market.

Cholera is extending itself along the Ohio and its tributary rivers. It has developed itself in Vienna alarmingly.

A number of the Sisters of Mercy of Savannah have gone to Birmingham, Ala., where the cholera prevails, to nurse the sick.

There were six deaths in Columbia for the week ending the 19th—whites 2, colored 4.

The Brooklyn Trust Company, a saving institution has just discovered that its president has been speculating with its funds. Upon being detected Mills, the president, committed suicide. The loss is eight hundred thousand dollars.

Poetry and Advertising.

Poetry and advertising seem to have become blended, "as it were." Ordinary prose has ceased to have the power to invest with proper attractiveness the announcements of vendors. Great emergencies bring out great minds. Hence the necessities of the advertiser have evolved the poet. This, for example, of a tailor, who, spinning prose, "drops in to poetry," like Wegg:

Oh! come into the garden, Maud,
And sit beneath the rose,
And see me prance around the beds,
Dressed in my Sunday clothes.
Oh! come and bring your uncles, Maud,
Your sister and your aunts,
And tell them Johnson made my coat,
My waistcoat and my pants.

Equally fanciful and suggestive is this:

Garly young Ferguson
Bought his cigar,
Bought it at Mulligan's,
Where the best are.
When he wants fine-cut, or
Soft for his nose,
Garly young Ferguson
Purchases those.

More substantial, however, is the following where the mingling of mackerel and emotion, cheese and affection, is really sweet:

Oh! say not I love you because the molasses
You purchased at Simpson's was golden and clear,
The syrup, the sugar, the jelly in glasses,
The crackers, the mackerel, I know, were not dear.
But when you came to see with Simpson's smoked
salmon,
And showed me his samples of Limburger cheese—
I felt that his claim to be cheap was not genuine:
I loved you and said so, dear Jane, on my knees.

BENNETT & MC FALL.

AGENTS FOR THE SALE OF MANUFACTURED ARTICLES AND PURCHASERS OF SOUTHERN PRODUCTIONS.

BENNETT & MC FALL, inform their friends that "SEA FOAM" as an aerator, is unequalled by any article yet discovered. Mixed dry with common flour in small quantities will produce lighter bread and more food than any other article in the market. For sale at retail, by BOYCE & MARTIN.

All persons should encourage home manufactures. Call them for the "CHEMICAL, OLIVE, and POOR MAN'S SOAP." Put up in 60 lb. boxes, warranted to hold out in weight. Just as good in hard as in soft water. For sale at retail by BOYCE & MARTIN.

To prevent boiler explosions, use "LOW WATER INDICATOR," for which BENNETT & MC FALL are agents. It gives warning to all the moment the water gets below a certain line in the boiler by a series of lively "toots," for twenty minutes. After which, a continuous whistle will sound attention until the steam is exhausted or the water raised to a proper limit.

Orders for the "Alcoa Fertilizer," should be sent in early to be in time for its reception for the next crop.

That Favorite Remedy, PAIN-KILLER

Has been before the public over THIRTY YEARS and probably has a wider and better reputation than any proprietary medicine of the present day.

At this period there are but few unacquainted with
